I am pleased to provide the 2003 Municipal Officials Directory. The directory contains comprehensive contact information for the 199 municipalities in Manitoba, including the names of existing council members and senior staff, the schedule of regular council meetings and municipal populations. It also provides the contacts for Manitoba Executive Council Members, Members of the Legislative Assembly and the employees of Intergovernmental Affairs who work with local governments in the Province.

I would also like to extend congratulations to all members of council who were elected at the municipal elections held October 23, 2002. Those who have been re-elected have had the confidence of your ratepayers reaffirmed. Together with the newly elected members of council, you will enjoy an opportunity to set direction for your community over the next 4 years of your term.

I am enthusiastic about the potential for Manitoba municipalities that have set new directions for their future through diversity of partnerships developed in conjunction with neighbouring communities. The willingness of councils to pursue creative responses in fulfilling their municipal responsibilities will ensure that Manitoba remains a vital place to live and work.

Yours sincerely,

Jean Friesen
